

Noma Cookies Policy

Last updated: 12th November

At Noma Collective, we are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring a positive experience while using our website. This Cookies Policy explains how we use cookies and similar technologies on our website (<http://noma-collective.com>) to enhance your browsing experience and provide our services.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. They allow the website to recognize your device and remember your preferences, actions, and login information over time. Cookies can also be used for tracking user behavior, analyzing trends, and delivering personalized content or advertisements.

Types of Cookies We Use

We use the following types of cookies on our website:

1. Strictly Necessary Cookies (always active)

These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly and cannot be switched off on our systems. They enable basic features such as page navigation, secure login, and access to areas of the website that require authentication. Without these cookies, certain services on the site may not be available. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.

2. Performance Cookies

Performance cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our website, allowing us to improve its functionality. These cookies collect information about the pages you visit, how you interact with content, and the time spent on each page. We use this information to improve the user experience and performance of the Site. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous.

3. Functional Cookies

These cookies enable the website to remember your preferences and choices, such as language, region, or login details. They allow us to provide a more personalized experience and offer tailored content based on your previous interactions with the site.

4. Targeting/Advertising Cookies

These cookies track your browsing habits across different websites and are used to deliver personalized ads or content relevant to your interests. They also help us measure the effectiveness of our advertising campaigns. These cookies may be set by third-party advertising networks, which may use the information to serve you relevant ads when you visit other websites. They do not store directly personal information, but are based on uniquely identifying your browser and internet device.

5. Third-Party Cookies

We may use third-party services, such as Google Analytics or social media platforms, that set cookies on our site to analyze user activity or enable social sharing. These cookies are subject to the privacy policies of the respective third parties.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- To improve the functionality of the Site and enhance user experience.
- To analyze how visitors use the Site and gather insights for optimization.
- To provide personalized content, offers, and recommendations based on your browsing activity.
- To remember your preferences and settings across sessions.
- To serve targeted advertisements and track the performance of our marketing efforts.

Changes to This Cookies Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. We encourage you to review this policy periodically to stay informed about how we are using cookies.
